Privacy Notice – General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2018

We, The London Academy of Excellence Tottenham, are a data controller for the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2018. We collect information from you and may receive information about you from your previous school. We hold this personal data and use it to:

- Support your teaching and learning;
- Monitor and report on your progress;
- Provide appropriate pastoral care, and
- Assess how well your school is doing.
- Support your progression to employment and Further and Higher Education

This information includes your contact details, national curriculum assessment results, attendance information and personal characteristics such as your ethnic group, any special educational needs and relevant medical information. On enrolment we will be provided with your unique learner number (ULN) by the Learning Records Service and may also obtain from them details of any learning or qualifications you have undertaken.

We will not give information about you to anyone outside the School without your consent unless the law and our rules allow us to.

We are required by law to pass some information about you to the Department for Education (DfE) as well as The Information Authority and, in turn, this will be available for the uses of the Local Authority and OfSTED.

If you want to see a copy of the information about you that we hold and/or share, please contact The Pastoral Support and Sixth Form Services Manager/Data Protection Officer.

If you require more information about how the Local Authority (LA) and/or DfE store and use your information, then please go to the following websites:

We are required by law to pass on certain information to the provider of youth support services in the local area. This is the local authority support service for young people aged 13 to 19 in England. We must provide the address of you and your parents (and your date of birth) and any further information relevant to the support services' role.
